

RECORD OF OFFICER DELEGATED DECISIONS

TITLE:	Amendment to sickness absence policy and approach to professional subscriptions
DECISION:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To adopt an amended sickness absence policy that removes the current arrangement whereby sickness absence isn't paid for the first two days. 2. That where a professional membership must be in place legally / professionally to undertake a role, that from 1 April 2024, the Council covers the associated cost of that membership.
DECISION MADE BY:	Head of Paid Service under delegation from Council
DATE DECISION MADE:	17 January 2024
REASON FOR DECISION:	This decision is made following a review of both areas.
DETAILS OF ANY ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS CONSIDERED:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Not to amend the policy. This would leave Boston BC at a recruitment disadvantage and employees of the Council would be disadvantaged on this key policy area when compared to the Partnership Councils. 2. Not to cover the costs. These are costs essential to perform a role and as such should be paid by the Council.
FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS OF DECISION:	ESTIMATED COST: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Could be up to £40,000 but anticipated to be less. 2. Circa £9,000 per annum. FUNDED FROM: Base budget
